Finally, mark your calendar for December 11th when Donna Rowe presents our program on her experience as an Army nurse in Vietnam.

The MOAA Messenger

November Meeting

Brent Buice, Georgia and South Carolina Coordinator of the East Coast Greenway along with Terry Landreth, Owner of Camden Cycles presented our program.

Brent Buice proudly displays his MOAA mug while Terry Landreth holds a map of the Three Rivers Bike Trail in Camden County.

After riding his bike from Savannah to St. Marys, Brent came to Osprey Cove and shared with our Chapter how Georgia is making progress in developing the Greenway. The good news is that Camden County leads the state in dedicated Greenway trail. Terry shared with us other initiatives that are making biking safer and more accessible for Camden residents. Quilt News

Becki Purvis, of Kingsland, is proudly smiling holding the Patriotic Stars, All American Quilt. The drawing took place at 11:00AM on November 11th, the 100th anniversary of the end of World War I. Kings Bay MOAA Treasurer, Keith Johnston, presented her the quilt. Keith sold Becki the winning ticket back in the early summer. When she was called, Becki said, "I've kept the ticket stub in my purse all this time, hoping I would win."

Thanks to Fran Thek who designed and made the quilt and all the members of Kings Bay MOAA who sold tickets, we were able to clear over $3,300 to support causes like K9 for Warriors, Camden County NJORTC, Honor Flight, Wreaths Across America and Veterans Programs of the Coastal College of Georgia.

Happy Birthday, The National Guard

December 13, 1636

382 Years (by far our oldest service...yeah,
I know that's cheating, we weren't even a nation in 1636.
But still a fun fact)
